

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

To: Business Editors

From: Jim Austin, Andrew Johnson Bank contact (423) 783-1000

Date: June 10, 2014

ANDREW JOHNSON BANK PROMOTES LEWIS AND MCGLOTHIN

James W. “Bill” Hickerson, President and CEO of Andrew Johnson Bank, announces that the Board of Directors of Andrew Johnson Bank has approved the promotion of Christy Lewis to the position of Assistant Vice President/Deposit Services Coordinator and Brent McGlothin to Vice President/Loan Officer/Business Development.

Since her hire in 2011, Lewis has served as Deposit Services Officer at the Main Office location at 124 N. Main Street in Greeneville. She will continue to open and manage new deposit accounts while responding to customer inquiries regarding retail bank products. She also specializes in consulting customers about Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs).

Hickerson said, “Christy will continue to offer her financial expertise to banking customers in Greeneville while taking on new projects and roles that will continue to grow our bank in a positive direction.”

Recently she has spearheaded the implementation of the bank’s Handy Andy Instant Issue Debit Card procedure. This will allow the Bank to print and distribute to its customers an Andrew Johnson Bank debit card while they wait.

Lewis has over 23 years of professional experience in the Greeneville/Greene County market in banking including work with GreenBank and Bank of America. During her career, Lewis has received specialized training from the Tennessee Bankers Association in IRAs and other bank related courses.

Originally from Greene County, Lewis is a graduate of North Greene High School and resides in Greeneville with her husband Jeff and sons Ben and Todd.

Lewis invites anyone interested in learning more about Andrew Johnson Bank to visit her at the Main Office. She can be contacted at (423) 783-1000.

Brent McGlothin has been promoted by Andrew Johnson Bank to Vice President/Loan Officer/Business Development at the Morristown Office at 435 W. First North St. His primary responsibilities are to serve the public’s request for commercial and private lending.

After graduating from East Tennessee State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration from the College of Business and Technology at ETSU in 1999, McGlothin was hired as a national Accounts Marketing Manager at Berkline Furniture Manufacturing of Morristown until 2001. He then joined 21st Mortgage Corporation of Knoxville as a Collections Manager, transitioning to Credit Manager and Lender. In 2005 he was employed as Accounts Receivable Manager with PFG Hale until being hired to Andrew Johnson Bank in August of 2008.

McGlothin is a native of Hamblen County and graduated from East High School in 1994. He and his wife Olivia Holt McGlothin reside in Russellville where Olivia teaches 4th Grade at Russellville Elementary. They attend Arrowhead Church of Morristown.

“Brent is a genuinely gifted and talented employee with a variety of skills and experience that serves the Morristown audience and our bank well,” said Hickerson.

McGlothin will gladly speak with interested parties regarding business development, commercial or consumer loans, and banking options for personal or business needs. He can be reached at (423) 581-8668.

Headquartered in Greeneville, Tennessee, Andrew Johnson Bank is a privately owned community bank chartered in 1975 with assets of approximately $290 million. The Bank has seven full-service offices in Greeneville, Morristown, Jonesborough, Johnson City and Cleveland, Tennessee. Since the Bank is privately owned, its stock is not publicly traded.